Note: 1. The student understands that this is the student's own responsibility, and if necessary, consult their doctor's opinion whether their physical condition is suitable for participating in the yoga class of the association. 2. Participants understand that their participation in the courses of the Association is voluntary, and they are aware of the risk of injury. The student agrees that the association need not to assess the physical condition of the students before the course no matter it starts or continues. If for some reason, a student is injured or dies while participating in our yoga class, the student and his family members will not seek any compensation from the association, its officers, employees, venue managers, event hosts or yoga course instructors. Students can purchase corresponding insurance by themselves if needed. 3. The students agree and understand that it is their own responsibility to properly keep their personal belongings, and agree that the Association will not be responsible for any theft.
