In addition, Shell launches GO+ member exclusive missions*. It's the perfect way to earn, redeem, and enjoy more rewards anytime!

How to complete your verification:

! Don't forget to open "Personal Infor" in the app and select "Receive marketing information and personalized content push from Shell". Turn on Shell App notifications to receive exclusive member offers! Plus, tap into the "Mission Centre" on the app homepage to take part in a variety of tasks and earn even more rewards! Sign up now and start saving every drive.

Shell GO+ Membership Benefits Upgrade

Corporate Partner Employees who join GO+ can now earn both yuu points, Asia Miles, and redeem a wide range of rewards! After linking your yuu account, purchases made at Shell, such as fuels, convenience store items, car wash, and oil change, will allow you to earn both GO+ points and yuu points. GO+ points can be redeemed for Shell cash vouchers, snacks and beverages, theme park tickets, air miles, and gift cards, etc. When paying at Shell with any Mastercard or Visa card that is linked to your Cathay membership, every single transaction of HK$600 or above (after discount) earns 100 Asia Miles, plus an extra 100 miles on your first transaction during your birthday month.

#For details of the missions, please refer to the terms and conditions in the Mission Centre of Shell App.

[^] Existing Shell GO+ members are eligible for this staff benefits only if their registered mobile number has not recorded any transactions in the Shell App within the last 3 months.

How to register for the Shell fuel discounts?

Fuel vehicle users:

1. Download 'Shell Hong Kong & Macau' App ('Shell App') from Google Play or App Store on your mobile device.
2. In the Shell App, enter your mobile number with the One-Time-Password to complete registration.
3. Follow the instructions below to upload your employee ID for verification. The verification process takes around 4 working days.
4. After completing registration and receiving the verification code, follow the steps below to complete the verification inside the Shell App.
5. The Shell GO+ Member Certification of CUHK is GOCUHK2026.

Reminder:

1) If the employee has already registered with another "exclusive member certification", please contact the online customer service in the Shell App to complete re-verification. Each GO+ member can only register one certification.
